Funeral Directing Costs

Your personal funeral director

£885

At Memorial Woodlands we pride ourselves on providing every family with one point of contact, who not only arranges but also directs the funeral. We ensure you have the time, space and privacy to design exactly the right funeral for your loved one.

Before the day your funeral director will:

- meet with you to provide you all support, guidance and advice you wish, including completion of all necessary documentation;
- liaise with all third parties including doctors, hospitals, hospices and homes, coroners, crematorias, cemeteries and celebrants or ministers;
- arrange notices, flowers and organise orders of service;
- arrange any viewings you request.

On the day of the funeral your funeral director will:

- organise the hearse and all necessary staff, fulfilling your requests and any special requirements;
- manage the music, pall bearers, floral tributes and any other services you have requested.

Services provided to your loved one

£1,275

- Your personal funeral director will organise for your loved one to be brought into our care as soon as possible.
- Following your wishes we will care, prepare and dress the deceased for the funeral and any viewings you request.
- We will provide a hearse for the coffin to be transported and escort the deceased to the location(s) of the service(s) and committal.

Coffins and Caskets

We source our coffins from local manufacturers, including traditional, ecological, veneered and solid wood. Your funeral director will advise you of the unique qualities of each coffin.

Chapel and reception rooms

We hold only one service a day, giving friends and families the time, space and privacy to celebrate a life without being hurried. Choosing to use the beautiful Georgian chapel and adjacent reception rooms, which sit within a beautiful private garden with a tranquil pond, gives you the opportunity to say goodbye in your own way; you have use of the buildings for as long as you need. We can provide guests with refreshments, or you can provide your own. Whether the deceased will be buried or cremated we can hold the appropriate funeral service(s) in any denomination or belief.

A simple funeral

£2,249

You may want to give your loved one a simple funeral and celebrate their life in other ways. No matter what style of funeral, we will manage its organisation with the same excellent service and attention to detail. You will have a dedicated funeral director who will ensure you have the time, space and privacy to prepare the necessary administrative duties and be with you on the day, for one fixed fee.

This price includes every minimum requirement except third-party fees (known as disbursements).

- Your funeral director will organise your loved one to be brought into our care as soon as possible within office hours.
- Following your wishes we will care for, prepare and dress the deceased for the funeral or any viewings you request, within office hours.
- Before the funeral your funeral director will meet with you to provide you with all the support, guidance and advice you require, including completion of all necessary documentation. They will liaise with all third parties including doctors, hospitals, hospices and homes, coroners, crematorias, cemeteries and celebrants or ministers.
- We will organise a traditional, simple coffin in oak or elm.
- On the day of the funeral your funeral director will accompany the hearse to take the deceased to the church and/or crematorium or cemetery, together with all necessary staff to fulfil your wishes. They will remain with you throughout the service.
- We will work on your behalf to organise a suitable time and date for the service although some times and dates may not be possible.
- The crematorium or cemetery location and collection of your loved one to bring them into our care must be within a 30 mile radius of our Woodland Cemetery.

Any third-party costs such as doctors' fees, cremation fees and celebrants' or ministers' fees must be paid in full 48 hours before the service, as well as a deposit of £1125 towards our costs.

Memorial Stones

We use Purbeck stone for all our memorials, providing a variety of shapes, finishes and sizes. The mason has various lettering styles available and will advise on the most suitable stone size for the amount of letters required for your special message. Once the stone has been cut with your message the lettering is enhanced with paint.

Please contact us for a brochure.

Plot Maintenance

This includes twelve separate mowing and tidying sessions to be spread across the months from mid-April until October for each plot concerned. The timings, weather and season permitting, will be: one each April, two each May, June, July, August, and September and one each October. The cost will be £225.00 per plot per ann um.
